2. Vision, Mission & Values

2.1 Vision

An inclusive world in which all people with disabilities enjoy their human rights and achieve their full potential.

2.2 Mission

Fighting to end the cycle of poverty and disability.

2.3 Values

- We champion inclusion
- We strive for justice
- We embrace partnership
- We pursue excellence
- We live with integrity

3. CBM Global's Core Areas of Work

CBM Global works with the most marginalised in society to:

- Break the cycle of poverty and disability
- Treat and prevent conditions that lead to disability
- Build inclusive communities where everyone can enjoy their human rights and achieve their full potential

CBM Global's work is focused on four core areas:

- Community based inclusive development Establishing the foundations for inclusion in communities, improving access to inclusive education, employment and healthcare, and improving quality of life for women, men and children with disabilities and their families. We use evidence and learning from our community-based work to support the disability movement in advocating for inclusive national laws and policies and achieving global change.
- Humanitarian action Supporting and facilitating locally driven, peoplecentred, timely, appropriate and effective humanitarian assistance to the poorest and most at-risk men, women and children affected by disaster events, and reducing the risk of disasters. This support is delivered in partnership with Organisations of Persons with Disabilities (OPDs) and in close coordination with the humanitarian sector at global, regional, national and local levels.
- Inclusive eye health and neglected tropical diseases Improving access to inclusive and comprehensive eye health services for all, strengthening national eye health systems, making services affordable and accessible to the poorest and most marginalised people, and helping eliminate neglected tropical diseases.

• Community mental health Promoting good mental health, challenging the exclusion of people with psychosocial disabilities, and strengthening mental health systems, so that mental health needs are recognised and addressed as part of a comprehensive approach to wellbeing and inclusion.

These core areas of work are delivered in an integrated way through a combination of community based programmes, advocacy activities and the provision of advisory support to other organisations that wish to ensure their own policies and programmes are inclusive of people with disabilities.

CBM Global works with and supports Organisations of Persons with Disabilities to ensure we meet the needs of, and are accountable to, the individuals and communities we serve. CBM Global's advocacy supports and amplifies the voices of people with disabilities, from community to global level. The advisory approach is undertaken with the best technical experts on disability inclusion – people with disabilities themselves. Programmes in Africa, Asia and Latin America are developed and delivered with local partner organisations to ensure long-term transformation and accountability in the communities we serve. Learning and evidence from the community level work informs CBM Global's advocacy to achieve systemic change for people with disabilities. The intersection of gender and disability is always considered in CBM Global strategies, programmes, advocacy and advisory work.

4. Programmatic Activities

CBM Global worked with a network of partner organisations to deliver community based programmes in our focus countries, pursue advocacy activities and provide advisory support to other organisations.

Priorities for the year included: rebalancing power in our partnerships, driving forward our commitments to authentic partnership and strong representation of people with disabilities and voices from the Global South at all levels within our work; growing engagement with Organisations of Persons with Disabilities as a central aspect to our partnership with and accountability to the disability movement; promoting inclusive climate action, both as an advocacy priority and as a programming priority in communities facing the direct consequences of the climate crisis; advocating for data on persons with disabilities in order to influence decision makers to address the most urgent actions at national, regional and global levels, to identify gaps that are not addressed through policies and to provide examples of success; scaling up our inclusion advice to other organisations, provided through our Inclusion Advisory Group (IAG); and pursuing innovation, such as the use of the Arclight tool in our inclusive eye health programming.

In 2023 we continued to pursue a wide range of memberships, affiliations and strategic partnerships at global, regional and country levels. In 2023 new formal collaborations were established with:

World Federation of the Deaf focusing on how both organisations can work together to ensure human rights for deaf people, including access and legal recognition of national sign languages for deaf people globally.

Africa Disability Forum which includes lobbying and advocacy for implementation of the United Nations Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities (UNCRPD) at country level and for ratification of the African Disability Protocol by Member States of the African Union; organisational strengthening of OPDs within ADF's membership; delivery of inclusion advice to other organisations; and promotion of inclusive climate action, humanitarian response and disability inclusive Disaster Risk Reduction.

HelpAge International promoting age and disability inclusion in the humanitarian sector, pursuing the delivery of joint inclusion advice to other organisations – bringing together age and disability inclusion – in humanitarian and development settings, and collaborating on disability and age-related data initiatives.

6. Risk Management

The management team implemented a risk management process to manage and mitigate risks. On a monthly basis, the Risk Register was reviewed and updated with the clear objective of diligently following through on all risk mitigation actions. The Board received reports for each of their board meetings.

Some of our Cash at Bank are held in local currency in our 11 country offices in Asia, Africa and Bolivia. To minimise Foreign Exchange risks, we only keep balances representing a few months of operating cost in the country offices and since the costs in these countries are also incurred in the local currency, we therefore mitigate our Foreign Exchange risk.

We are operating in some of the poorest countries in the world, with inherent fraud risks. We have a zero tolerance policy for fraud and corruption and have monitoring measures in place, including a whistleblowing facility.

No Research and development activities are carried out by CBM Global.

7. Safeguarding and Protection from Sexual Exploitation, Abuse and Harassment

CBM Global has policies on Safeguarding and Protection from Sexual Exploitation, Abuse and Harassment (SEAH) and related procedures to create an environment in which people, especially children, adults-at-risk and other programme participants are protected from any harm that may be caused because of their engagement with CBM Global's programmes, operations, and people. CBM Global has a zero tolerance toward all forms of abuse and takes seriously any safeguarding concern or allegation involving CBM Global staff, representatives, and partners. CBM Global addresses safeguarding and PSEAH throughout its advocacy, advisory work, development and humanitarian field programming activities using the three-pronged approach of prevention, reporting and response.

A board appointed safeguarding lead worked with the Executive Director and Global Safeguarding Manager to review CBM Global's safeguarding practices and manage safeguarding incidents. Priorities for the year included establishing the required safeguarding architecture at a country level with CBM Global country teams and the development and launch of safeguarding training materials for staff and partners. An in-depth safeguarding session was facilitated by the Safeguarding Manager with the Board of Trustees in November.

8. Financial results for the year

During the year income was € 24,833,924, with the largest portion being grants for direct projects with CBM Global partners (€ 17,119,145), with the remainder being mainly contributions of Member organisations towards the cost of CBM Global's activities in support of project and advocacy activities. The increase in income and expenditure compared to 2022 is driven primarily by the fact that in 2022 we only started managing projects in Zimbabwe as of July whereas in 2023 we had a full year of project activities.

Expenditures for the year amounted to  $\le$  24,097,815 of which  $\le$  15,795,546 were project grants to partners. In addition we incurred a net foreign exchange loss of  $\le$  5,750

The net result of the year was a surplus of income over expenditure of € 730,359 of which € 166,364 are earmarked for development projects. In line with the Reserves Policy agreed by the Board, the surplus for 2023 will be transferred to Reserves.

9. Outlook for the year 2024

The Board has approved utilisation of some of our Reserves to invest in various initiatives that will strengthen our organisation further for the years to come. Therefore we expect to be running some deficits as we utilise the Reserves to increase our impact. We do not foresee any solvency and liquidity challenges.

In our opinion the accompanying financial statements give a true and fair view of the financial position of CBM Global Disability Inclusion Vereniging as at December 31st, 2023, and of its result for the period then ended in accordance with guideline for annual reporting 640 'Notfor-profit organisations' (RJ-640) of the Dutch Accounting Standards Board.

Basis for our opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with Dutch law, including the Dutch Standards on Auditing. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the 'Our responsibilities for the audit of the financial statements' section of our report.

We are independent of CBM Global Disability Inclusion Vereniging in accordance with the Verordening inzake de onafhankelijkheid van accountants bij assurance-opdrachten (ViO, Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants, a regulation with respect to independence) and other relevant independence regulations in the Netherlands. Furthermore we have complied with the Verordening gedrags- en beroepsregels accountants (VGBA, Dutch Code of Ethics).

We believe the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Information in support of our opinion

Although we are not responsible for preventing fraud, it is our responsibility to obtain reasonable assurance that the financial statements, taken as a whole, are free from material misstatement, whether caused by fraud or error.

We designed our audit procedures in the context of our audit of the financial statements as a whole and in forming our opinion thereon. The following information in support of our opinion was addressed in this context, and we do not provide a separate opinion or conclusion on these matters.

Audit approach fraud risks

Although we are not responsible for preventing fraud, it is our responsibility to obtain reasonable assurance that the financial statements, taken as a whole, are free from material misstatement, whether caused by fraud or error.

We designed our audit procedures in the context of our audit of the financial statements as a whole and in forming our opinion thereon. The following information in support of our opinion was addressed in this context, and we do not provide a separate opinion or conclusion on these matters.

We identify and assess the risks of material misstatements of the financial statements due to fraud. In order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances we obtained an understanding of the entity and its environment.

This included obtaining an understanding of the components of the system of internal control, the risk assessment process, the management's process for responding to the risks of fraud and monitoring of the system of internal control, how the board exercises oversight as well as the outcomes, relevant to our audit. We refer to risk management section of the managements' report for the management's (fraud) risk assessment.

We evaluated the design and relevant aspects of the system of internal control and in particular the fraud risk assessment, as well as the code of conduct, procedures and incident registration.

We evaluated the design and the implementation and, where considered appropriate, tested the operating effectiveness of internal controls designed to mitigate fraud risks. As part of our process of identifying fraud risks, we evaluated fraud risk factors with respect to financial reporting fraud, misappropriation of assets and bribery and corruption. We evaluated whether these factors indicate that a risk of material misstatement due to fraud is present.

As part of our audit procedures to respond to these risks, we evaluated whether the selection and application of accounting policies by the company, particularly those related to subjective measurements, may be indicative of fraudulent financial reporting. We tested the appropriateness of journal entries recorded in the general ledger and other adjustments made in the preparation of the financial statements. We incorporated elements of unpredictability in our audit. We considered the outcome of our other audit procedures and evaluated whether findings were indicative of fraud.

We evaluated fraud risk factors to determine whether those factors indicated a risk of a material misstatement due to fraud. We identified the following fraud risk:

- 1. Management override of controls;
- 2. Revenue recognition;
- 3. Unauthorized payments.

The risk that management overrides internal control measures.

Management is in a position to commit fraud because it is able to manipulate accounting records and prepare fraudulent financial statements by overriding internal control measures that otherwise appear to be effective. During the audit, we focus on the risk of management overriding internal control measures in:

- Journal entries and other adjustments made during the preparation of the financial statements;
- Estimates and estimation processes;
- Significant transactions outside the normal course of business.

We evaluated the design and implementation of internal control measures in the processes for generating and processing journal entries and making estimates, assuming a risk of management override of that process. We have assessed the process for the preparation of financial reporting.

We assessed estimates for biases, particularly in important judgment areas, as explained in the paragraph "Estimates and assessments" in the notes to the annual accounts.

We also used data analysis to identify and test journal entries with an increased risk of fraud.

The risk of fraudulent financial reporting, as a result of an overstated turnover

Management has been given specific targets for turnover growth and budget realization from group management. This could put pressure on management to report an overstated turnover, by accounting for turnover too early or by entering fictitious turnover.

We have determined and evaluated that the design and implementation of the process level controls are implemented by management with regard to the significant risk.

Furthermore we performed among others the following substantive procedures:

- tested samples and vouched with underlying supporting documents;
- obtained the grant call out documentation and compared the amounts;
- obtained the bank statements for the amounts received.

The risk of unauthorized payments

We have determined and evaluated that the design and implementation of the process level controls are implemented by management with regard to the significant risk.

Furthermore we performed among others the following substantive procedures: Test of details by means of sampling project payments. We have tested the project costs to the board approvals for valid project costs and correct bank account.

The fraud risks we identified, enquiries and other available information did not lead to specific indications for fraud or suspected fraud potentially materially impacting the view of the financial statements.

Audit approach going concern

The board has carried out a going concern assessment for the period of twelve months from the date of preparation of the financial statements and has not identified any events or circumstances that may cause reasonable doubt on the entity's ability to continue as a going concern (hereinafter referred to as 'going concern risks'). Our procedures to evaluate the going concern assessment of the board included, amongst others, the following:

- Considered whether the going concern assessment of the board contains all relevant information that we have knowledge of as a result of our audit and inquired the board on key assumptions and estimates:
- Evaluated the budgeted results taking into our knowledge of the audit;

Based on our procedures performed, we did not identify significant doubts on the Company's ability to continue as a going concern for the next 12 months. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report.

Since not all future events or circumstances can be predicted, this statement is not a guarantee of the entity's ability to continue as a going concern.

B. Report on the other information included in the annual report

In addition to the financial statements and our auditor's report thereon, the annual report contains other information that consists of:

The report of the board.

Based on the following procedures performed, we conclude that the other information is consistent with the financial statements and does not contain material misstatements.

We have read the other information. Based on our knowledge and understanding obtained through our audit of the financial statements or otherwise, we have considered whether the other information contains material misstatements.

By performing these procedures, we comply with the Dutch Standard 720. The scope of the procedures performed is substantially less than the scope of those performed in our audit of the financial statements.

The board is responsible for the preparation of the other information, comprising the board report, in accordance with guideline for annual reporting 640 'Not-for-profit organisations' (RJ-640) of the Dutch Accounting Standards Board..

C. Description of responsibilities regarding the financial statements

Responsibilities of the board for the financial statements

The board is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with guideline for annual reporting 640 'Not-for-profit organisations' (RJ-640) of the Dutch Accounting Standards Board. Furthermore, the board is responsible for such internal control as the board determines is necessary to enable the preparation of the financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

As part of the preparation of the financial statements, the board is responsible for assessing the foundation's ability to continue as a going concern. Based on the financial reporting framework mentioned, the board should prepare the financial statements using the going concern basis of accounting unless the board either intends to liquidate the foundation or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

The board should disclose events and circumstances that may cast significant doubt on the foundation's ability to continue as a going concern in the financial statements.

Our responsibilities for the audit of the financial statements

Our objective is to plan and perform the audit assignment in a manner that allows us to obtain sufficient and appropriate audit evidence for our opinion.

Our audit has been performed with a high, but not absolute, level of assurance, which means we may not detect all material errors and fraud during our audit.

Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements. The materiality affects the nature, timing and extent of our audit procedures and the evaluation of the effect of identified misstatements on our opinion.

We have exercised professional judgment and have maintained professional skepticism throughout the audit, in accordance with Dutch Standards on Auditing, ethical requirements and independence requirements. Our audit included e.g.:

- Identifying and assessing the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, designing and performing audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtaining audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control;
- Obtaining an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the foundation's internal control;
- Evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by the board;
- Concluding on the appropriateness of the board's use of the going concern basis of accounting, and based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the foundation's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause a foundation to cease to continue as a going concern;

- Evaluating the overall presentation, structure and content of the financial statements, including the disclosures; and
- Evaluating whether the financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

Because we are ultimately responsible for the opinion, we are also responsible for directing, supervising and performing the group audit. In this respect we have determined the nature and extent of the audit procedures to be carried out for group entities. Decisive were the size and/or the risk profile of the group entities or operations. On this basis, we selected group entities for which an audit or review had to be carried out on the complete set of financial information or specific items.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant findings in internal control that we identify during our audit.
